CLARA PHILLIPS CONFESSES

62 ARE BURIED IN ONE GRAVE

South Carolina Fire Victims Interred Near Disaster Scene

ONLY THREE IDENTIFIED

59 Burned Beyond Recognition — 3,000 Attend Funeral

CAMDEN, S. C. — (Associated Press) — The disaster-stricken community of 1,000 in a Cleveland school house, near here, lost 72 persons perished Thursday night in a fire which destroyed the structure during the holding of commencement exercises, were buried today in a single grave in the community cemetery. Sixty of a group of a member and in several instances entire families were wiped out in the tragedy.

All but eleven of the victims were buried in one grave in the Beulah Methodist church, and within near vicinity of the school house ruins in which the met death. Only three of the 52 men, women and children who shared the same grave, had been identified, the others having been burned beyond recognition.

OPEN AIR SERVICES

Two hundred persons, among whom Governor McLeod of South Carolina, attended the open air funeral services held in the sun down on the roof of the tragedy.

The following records of the burning of the school house, caused by the fire of a lamp, overhanging the stage on which members of the graduating class were giving a play for the audience of about 300 men, women and children, show that the frame structure was engulfed by the flames in an incredibly short time. The building was a smoldering ruins thirty feet after the falling of the lamp and spied flames which caused a panic for the narrow stairway leading from the second floor.

INCREDIBLE JUMPING

The collapse of the stairway threw men into a struggling mass from which they were powerless to escape.

ACCOUNTS SHORT, EX-CHIEF MISSING

Former Head of New York Concern Mysteriously Disappears

$300,000 IS ALSO GONE

Wife of Alleged Defaulter is Left Penniless

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. — (Associated Press) — Whereabouts of Harry E. Pettee, former president of the General Carbonic Gas Company of New York city, who has been missing since May 10, was still a mystery today, it was said, at the office of Edgar T. Brackett, counsel for the company who yesterday disclosed the absence of Pettee after the discovery of a shortage of approximately $300,000 in his accounts.

Pettee was removed from office at a meeting of the stockholders on Wednesday in New York. Representatives of the company said that after writing a confession, later found in his private box in the office of the company, Pettee told his wife he intended to go to Norfolk, Va., on a business trip.

Earlier in the week she had signed at his request her interest in a life insurance policy on which he borrowed $12,000. From this, his business associates believe, he is still living despite the reference made by him in his statement to Colonel Whittlesey of the Lott Battalion, who committed suicide at sea. Pettee is alleged to have written: "Whittlesey did right."

Mrs. Pettee has told investigators of the company that she has endorsed many of his notes and is left practically penniless.

CHURCH FIGHT FORECAST IN STAND OF W. J. BRYAN

INDIANAPOLIS — The action of William Jennings Bryan in refusing the chairmanship of the committee on home missions, tendered him by Dr. Charles F. Wishart, moderator, was the chief topic of discussion today among churchmen attending the 135th general assembly of the Presbyterian church. Many of the delegates expressed the opinion that Bryan's action is the forerunner of a fight between the liberals headed by Dr. Wishart and the fundamentalists led by Bryan.

HARDING'S HOME TOWN BROKE

Further Loans to City of Marion Refused by Banks

MARION, Ohio — (Associated Press) — President Harding's hometown is financially broke.

With banks refusing to loan the city any more funds and no money available from county and state funds until next August, city council today placed the situation up to the mayor when it passed a motion directing him to "find ways and means to raise funds to pay policemen, firemen and city employees until January 1, 1924."

The city council recently passed an occupational tax ordinance whereby all industries and business of the city will be required to pay a tax, and which it was pointed out by sponsors of the ordinance, would provide sufficient funds to run the city until the next settlement with the county.

"Whittlesey did right."

Mrs. Pettee has told investigators of the company that she has endorsed many of his notes and is left practically penniless.

Mayor George Neely vetoed the ordinance, but offered no other solution of the city's financial plight.

WARNED TO GET OUT OF MEXICO

Delegates to Recognition Party Receive Anonymous Notes

BOMB ATTACK FOLLOWS

Guard Around American Embassy Greatly Increased

MEXICO CITY — (Associated Press) — President Obregon said today that he considered yesterday's bombing, which damaged the office of a Mexican attorney in the building that houses the United States consulate general was an effort to hinder the government in its recognition negotiations with the United States.

"What could it be but a profound displeasure?" he said. "I believe it concerns a manoeuvre against the government to hinder us in reaching a good understanding with the United States."

After 24 hours of investigation the municipal police and federal secret service agents today had found no clue warranting an arrest in connection with the explosion.

GUARD INCREASED

Newspaper men today learned from Gilberto Valenzuela, under secretary of the interior, that Charles B. Warren and John Bartholomew Payne, the American members of the mixed recognition commission received anonymous warnings soon after their arrival on May 11 that they must leave Mexico within 72 hours.

The guard of police and secret service men around the American embassy, consulate and the buildings in which the conference sessions are being held, has been greatly increased.

BURGLAR SHOT TO DEATH BY CLEVELAND POLICEMAN

CLEVELAND — An unidentified man, said by police to have been interrupted in a burglary, was shot and instantly killed early today when he ignored commands of Patrolman Herman to halt. One shot, fired by policeman after a four block chase, struck the man in the back, passing thru his body and emerging near his heart.

CAR BANDIT BOND FIXED AT $4,000

Aglaize-co Youth Pleads Guilty on Four Charges

William Ranga, 19, of 243 W. McKinley-st., was bound over to the Allen-co grand jury Saturday morning by Judge Jackson in criminal court when the confessed street car bandit pleaded guilty to four charges of robbery. Bond of $4,000 was furnished by his family and he was released shortly after the hearing.

Ranga was taken into criminal court by Chief of Detectives Kipper, to whom he first made his confession Thursday afternoon. Judge Jackson read the four affidavits to him in which four street car holdups on Spencerville-nd. were charged to him. In a low voice he entered his plea of guilty and was bound over to the grand jury.

Ranga is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ranga, well known residents of Leaven-w., Aglaize-co. His parents reside about two miles northeast of Buckland.

He came to Lima some time ago to secure work, after attending school in Buckland. Young Ranga is one of a family of several children.

The total cash lost in the street car holdups which were all staged at the end of the W. Market-st. car line here amounted to nearly $75,000.

"ADMINISTRATION HEART CUT OUT"

Governor More of Figurehead Than Ever, Donahey Says

TALKS ON ROAD DECISION

Highway Department Under Control of Public Works

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Decision of the state supreme court that neither the governor nor the state finance director may interfere with the state highway director in carrying out his policy caused Governor Donahey to issue a statement in which he said "the governor of Ohio is more of a figurehead than he was before."

The court decreed that control of the road policy is vested in the state highway department. Other officials may not interfere unless they have reason to believe irregularities prevail.

GOVERNOR'S STATEMENT

In his statement the governor said in part: "I always have thought and always have said that under the reorganization code the finance director is the heart of the administration. The heart has been cut out. The governor of Ohio is more of a figurehead than he was before. Prior to the adoption of the reorganization code he could appoint a director of highways and remove him for cause. Now he can do nothing, for the reorganization code places control of the highway department under the supervision of public works, a constitutional office. The supervisor may be removed only by impeachment before the senate and the governor has no more control over the highway department than has any private individual."

Woman Held in Honduras a Suspect Breaks Silence

STORY STARTLES DETECTIVE

Convicted Murderess to be turned to Los Angeles

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras — (United Press) — A sensational confession that she is none other than Clara Phillips "hammer slayer" sought throughout the western world since her escape from a Los Angeles jail last year, was made today by the woman who has been held here on that suspicion.

American detectives arriving to identify the prisoner and simultaneously with their arrival, the woman who previously had maintained silence attacking anyone who sought to learn her secret, broke down and confessed she is the woman convicted of beating to death Mrs. Alberta Meadows.

Although the woman held prisoner here had displayed a fierce temper that made approach dangerous, it had not been determined that she was actually the tiger woman of California.

Her companion, a man and woman the former detained on suspicion of being Jesse Caisen, wanted in Los Angeles had denied she was Clara.

REVOLT BREAKS IN CHINESE ARMY

Military Situation Greatly Increases Menace to Captives

SHANGHAI — (Associated Press) — General Ho Fung-Yi, commander of the Chinese government troops surrounding the mountain retreats of the Shantung bandits, no longer is the dreaded foe of the outlaws, but thru the present situation has "lost his face" and is menaced by a revolt of his 10,000 or 15,000 soldiers, according to a private report unpublished in China but received from an authoritative source.

General Ho's grip is said to have weakened largely because the troops he commands have not been paid for eighteen months and are in a state of the bandits' prestige.

American, British and French commercial bodies in Shanghai are preparing for a mass meeting to give articulate expression to their anxiety over the foreign captives held at Paotzuk.

BABY'S LIFE SAVED IN RACE WITH DEATH FROM WAPAK TO COLUMBUS

Intervention of medical science saved the life of Dorothy M. Lu, 20-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Lusk, residents of Auglaize-co, near Wapakoneta, Friday.

While the child was eating an apple, a small piece lodged in its windpipe. A Wapakoneta physician hurriedly summoned was unable to dislodge the apple and the baby's condition became serious.

It was decided to move the little patient to Columbus. Dr. James Bowen, a throat specialist, was notified by telephone.

The party including the Wapakoneta physician and the parents of the child, left for Columbus in an automobile, making the trip in about three hours.

Before Columbus was reached the condition of the child had become so serious it was believed its breathing had stopped altogether. Artificial respiration was resorted to at the office of the specialist and the baby was revived, after which the piece of apple was removed.

The parents returned to their home late Friday, the child having recovered and is now apparently none the worse for its experience.

The increase of staff will release Veal to city wide work and his official capacity will become that of city boys secretary upon the arrival of Updegrah.

WEATHERMAN'S MOOD SOFTENS

There is no use finding fault with the weatherman. He'll have his own way about it, in spite of anything you or I may say. Most everyone is gratified, however, over the fact that frost predictions twice this week failed to materialize to such an extent that damage was wrought to growing things.

Still in a disagreeable mood, the prognosticator is determined to be annoying. This time he comes thru with a prediction of unsettled conditions and probably showers late tonight and Sunday. Warmer in south portion tonight. That's better—the latter part of it.

Ted is riding high in cloudland. He doesn't care a rap whether there is rain or sunshine. Like all weather optimists, he refuses to worry about what is or is to be, sort of a jadedist, you know. Believe that what is to be will be, and if it can't be prevented, better the latter part of mind that.

At any rate, the forecaster's mood is softening in the matter of temper, I think. Getting more like an up-and-down day. For all of which, most everybody is truly thankful.

CHURCH COUNCIL BACKS G. A. R. MEMORIAL PLEA; SEEKS CHARITY AGENCY

Most recent observance of Memorial Day and centralizing of charity agencies into one council are urged in resolutions adopted by the Church Council Club of Churches to be read Sunday from pulpits.

The Memorial Day resolution was adopted in support of the plea of the G. A. R. that the major in a proclamation ask citizens to refrain from sports on that Sunday.

The resolution suggesting a central charity agency declares the present unorganized policy of charitable work is inefficient and results in conflict in collection of money.

FEMININE TOUCH IS ESSENTIAL

One Woman Helps Men Cartoonists Make Good

TELLS TRICKS' OF TRADE

Make People Learn Thru Laughing. She Says

NEW YORK — (Special) — The feminine touch! It's needed in even the ultra masculine a profession as making animated cartoons for the movies.

And that's the reason why Miss Irma Heimlich has probably the only job of its kind in the United States. Twenty men turn out the wiggling arms and legs, the wiggling ears and the wavering chin whiskers which go to make up the animated fables of the screen. And when these 20 have reached their limit—Miss Heimlich steps in and adds the finishing touches.

Does Fanny Cat need a bow adjusted? Miss Heimlich sets it at the proper angle. Is some mere male cartoonist, in despair as to how he can get the necessary punch in a 30-second scene? Miss Heimlich comes off one of the evening news with a train of cars and the trick is done.

She watches feminine fashions and fobblies as closely as any lady novelist. And for much the same reason.

WHY WE LAUGH

People want to learn," she explains, "but they don't want to know they're learning. Hence the best thing to do is to make fun of human failings.

Supposition is the human failing that is real meat for the cartoonist. "I see a woman breaking a mirror and then all the ridiculous mishaps that came from it every woman in the audience will laugh. But because she has dared to laugh, some of the old superstition has lost its grip on her."

"Another human failing—a sentimental one—is to fall in love with someone who is hopelessly beyond reach. Sometimes it is Farmer Corn, a vessel in love with a chorus girl—sometimes it is the simple country girl in love with a stock actor. In such things the cartoonist can do one of two things—make a dupe of the former or make the actor hopeless commonplace."

But in either case the audience laughs and little Mary Smith out front reconsiders her decision to cope with the tenor in the church choir.

LESSON ON CLOTHES

"Clothes are another human failing, but tie a ribbon on a dinosaur's tail and most women in the audience will think of clothes a little less seriously."

The cartoonist even dares to run contrary to public opinion sometimes according to Miss Heimlich.

At the time when the Sheik was the height of his popularity" she says, "it was taken for granted that 'romance' was what every woman wanted. But a cartoon called 'Not a Woman Wants a Sheik' was one of the most successful we ever put out."

BONAR LAW, SERIOUSLY ILL; EXPECTED TO RESIGN

LONDON — Premier Bonar Law now is certain to resign, political experts, his friends and the British press agree.

The resignation may come very soon but almost certainly before the end of July, it is learned on the best authority. The premier's illness is much more critical than at first was realized. He is returning from Paris this afternoon.

BATTLE TO DEATH

WHAT was the most thrilling thing you ever saw? You may have to reflect before answering, proving that life is not as dull as most of us imagine.

We put the same question to Namaycush, wrinkled old Algonquin Indian guide in Hudson Bay country.

He answered: "I saw eagle swoop down to grab big muskie fish, which sun him off on surface of lake. Eagle, he got hold. You know how bulldog jaws lock when he bite? Eagle's talons, so. Eagle, he no can lift fish. Fish, he no can get away. Eagle, he try to fly. Muskie, he try to swim down. They fight twenty minute."

Which do you think won this battle to the death, herewith pic. . . . So far? Wrong! The big muskellunge, which grows as big as 150 pounds, gradually tired the eagle, drew him under. Namaycush saw a final swirl of white water, a dash of feathers. Then the waters of the lake settled smooth as glass. It was after twilight. Dark came.

—SOTTERFIELD

The battle to the death, between muskie and eagle, is symbolic of the struggle for existence that eternally goes on, all thru nature. For mutual protection in this struggle, men banded together to fight wild beasts. So began civilization.

The wild beasts are nearly extinct. Civilization goes on, but men have forgotten its original purpose. They continue killing themselves instead of beasts. They literally knife each other, in the hoggish spirit of each trying to get more than he needs.

Co-operation, which made civilization, is at low ebb.

Get that truth indelibly. It explains most of our troubles and problems in so-called civilization.

SILKEN

COSTS a lot of money to keep the girls in silk stockings and allied accoutrement. Last year, says a government report, our country imported nearly 266 million dollars worth of raw silk, or four and a half times as much as in 1913. However, for our money we got less than twice as much silk (in tons) from abroad in 1922 as in 1913. Which shows how the price hoax can fool us on foreign trade, coming in or going out. Also how prices have gone up.

CUCKOO

WITH good luck, radio fans this summer may pick up a strange voice from the far north. That will be Donald B. MacMillan, famed polar explorer, aboard the good ship Bowdoin.

MacMillan is on needles and pins to learn what effect his radio will have on Eskimos. "When we showed them a regular wire phone," he says, "I found one of them at one end of the wire. He would yell and then run to the other end of the wire to try to hear the sound of his own voice."

This gives you a laugh. But we can't help wondering what the Eskimos would think of some of the equally cuckoo things we do in politics, business and our everyday lives.

CUCKOO

Have you seen the new earings? The piano keys hold a good point that reach the shoulders, and keep the ears from flapping?

A beautiful little dancing frock cellar. Friends may think you are never be made by cutting down a one-piece bathing suit.

Being human is a hard life, but suppose we were microbes. Takes a billion microbes to be a crowd.

BY DR. OH. JACKENRIM

A page from the Diary of an Antiquated Reporter: Up, by break of day, and walked down to the old spring on the Fourt farm. Now Faurot park. And that of the day in the late nineties, when I took train on the fast trial run of the C. L. & M. Into Defiance. And a banquet there in the town hall with much ado. Thence, back to breakfast, on radishes and prunes. And so to the shoppe, betimes.

Out, and into Tom's Toggery, absorbing three collars, costing me one buck. Bet a baseball pool against the extravagance, hoping to beat the unbeatable game. Met M'sieur Gilles, the expert men's tailor, and engaged a fitting soon.

Having found a leak on the standard side of my tweeds. So, to the pants, and saluted by a pink slip. And I was now a stockholder in cataloging my books. Which did not much work and some worry. Had my Sappho in the original, so signed autograph. Think his name was Preferred. And an eighth edition. There was an eight on it. On my volumes of Susan Lenox. However, Bro. John was shaking his head behind the Bondman's back which saints he, Dee can now never find. And also put the cover of Pilgrim's Progress.

YOUR SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Prepared for The Lima News by Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson

Elijah, the brave reformer entered the public arena abruptly. He was without question the greatest religious personality that had appeared among the Hebrews since the days of Moses, the founder of the nation. His sudden appearance in the court with his message of denunciation and warning came at an hour, when the corrupt public officials opposed any prophetic interference with the affairs of state. They held with some modern men that it is the function of the minister to deal only with religious questions. In demanding that the prophet be indifferent to the commercial and political life of his time they forgot that every public question is a moral one and that back of every moral problem there was a religious one.

Elijah appeared with drastic sud-

ELIJAH. THE BRAVE REFORMER.—I Kings 17:1-9; II Kings 1:21; 21:1-29; II Kings 1:21-22. (A Survey of Elijah's Life.)

Golden Text:—Choose you this day whom ye will serve. Joshua 24:15.

deness in an hour when the religion of Israel was imperilled by the rapid development of idolatry supported by the liberal gifts of the state, due to the influence of Jezebel, whose zeal for the faith of Baal, which was a debauching religion that was oppressing the people by its vice, threatened the nation's life. Elijah evidently saw as wellhausen has expressed it that Baal and Jehovah represented so to speak, a contrast of principles, of profound and ultimate practical convictions, both could not be right, nor could they exist side by side. For him there existed no plurality of Divine Powers, operating with equal authority in different spheres, but everywhere One Holy and Mighty being, who revealed himself, not in the life of nature, but in those laws by which alone human society is held together, in the ethical domain of the Spirit.

APPEALS TO NATION

When the impulsive reformer abruptly entered Ahab's court demanding of the king that idol worship be abolished and warned all of the danger of perishing, as the result of a famine, the brave prophet made by his warnings an appeal to the nation. Elijah, the champion of faith, placed his hopes for ultimate success upon the verdict of the people. He stated his mission and message upon the sign of famine, that would prove beyond question to the nation that he was a prophet of God. The fulfillment of his prophecy would be accepted by the nation as his credentials. The man who had tried to master Ahab by physical power was conquered by the very weapons, he had determined to use as his instrument to master the nation. He suffered from a nervous break down at Brook Cherith, although God had in a miraculous manner provided for the prophet's needs. Great souls frequently have hours of depression, when they pass from the mountain tops of faith to the lowest abysses of unbelief. God rebuked the faithless fear and despair of the prophet by sending him to a heathen woman to teach him a lesson of faith. The prophet hated the Sidonians. It was their idolatry that he had condemned in Israel. She taught Elijah, as the Lord's messenger, would indicate, the nearness of God to all nations and people. His attitude toward the needy prophet is one of the finest examples of unselfish faith to be found in the Scriptures.

In due time, as a result of his intimacy with Jehovah, Elijah came back to Israel filled with courage, born of an enlarged faith and fellowship with the Lord while sojourning in the Sidonian widow's home. Although there was a price upon his head, he did not hesitate to meet the king and his court for his confidence in God's protection left no room in his heart for the fear of any man. He became for a time the master of the nation. He risked every thing upon the test by fire. He challenged the followers of Baal to a unique contest that would prove beyond question the supremacy of Jehovah. While the challenge was issued to Baal's followers, it was an appeal for the people to quit their idolatry and hypocritical methods of religious life. The contest between the priests of Baal and Elijah upon Mount Carmel is one of the most dramatic scenes in human history. The strange contrasts, the intense competition, the failure and the victory of Elijah, with the terrible

CLASSIFIED SECTION

21 BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES 21 BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

Real Opportunity For Real Men

Our factory representative is in Lima over Saturday and Sunday to interview applicants for the following position: the man we want does not ordinarily look for a connection in the classified columns but is just by chance this opportunity is offered. Our requirements are that a man must be of good appearance, fair education and aggressive to the point of his own conviction and good business judgment; must own a car and have at least fifteen hundred ($15,000) dollars for starting capital. We offer such a man who is not too proud to be taught by a practical experienced man in the field an opportunity to earn an income of at least fifteen thousand ($15,000) dollars a year.

Earn fifteen thousand a year in a new and non-competitive and manufacturing sales and service proposition that every car must have and always will require. This article is revolutionizing and is an improvement of at least 75% and an absolute necessary part of a car, as demanded by state laws, its sale is phenomenally easy, quick and sure, especially with our standardized sales and service plan. This is a clean, upright proposition with unlimited possibilities for making big money and quick in establishing a profitable, permanent business.
